THE TWO GOATS

One Saturday morning, Amon took his father's goats to graze. He took them to the slopes of a small hill. There was a bridge between the valleys. So Amon crossed the bridge to the grazing ground. As the goats were grazing, Amon decided to lie under a tree to rest. He fell asleep.

One of the goats decided to go to the bridge, the goat met another one taking the same direction. The bridge was very narrow, so the two goats were not able to cross at once. They started fighting each other. Suddenly they fell into the river and died. When Amos woke up, he looked for the goats. He went to the bridge and saw the goats dead. He felt sad.
